

BIG CORNER IN FIGHTS IN 'FRISCOLatest Scheme of the Managers of Pugilists.THE IDEA IS TO LIMIT MEETINGSMEANS GOOD-BYE TO LARGE
PURSES AND PER CENTAGES.

Fighters Will Then Have to Run After the Club Managers When They Desire to Raise an Honest Penny—Smith and Griffin to Meet on Aug. 27—Needham-Gallagher Fight Is Off—McLean Dies on the Track in Cincinnati—Doings on the Diamond.

San Francisco, July 29.—The managers of the three principal prize fight clubs are trying to agree upon a scheme which, if carried out, will practically give them a monopoly of the business in this city. The idea is to convince the spectators that only a limited number of permits for fights should be issued every month, and that they, as the established clubs, should have the permits. If this can be done, only two fights every month or three fights in two months will be pulled off, and the National, the Empire and the Columbia clubs will alternate with events. If this pugilistic trust be formed, there will no longer be any rivalry in bidding for fighters and large purses and per centages will no longer be given.

STEAM YACHT RACE.

Easy Victory for Enquirer, Pathfinder Giving Up.

Chicago, July 29.—The race for a $200 cup between the steam yachts Pathfinder and Enquirer from Chicago to Milwaukee started at 9:20 this morning. The race aroused much interest and the passenger steamers Virginia and Christopher Columbus, which accompanied the racers, were crowded from stem to stern. The start was made one mile from shore. Enquirer obtained a slight lead, which was maintained for nearly seven miles of the course, when Pathfinder gradually overhauled her. As the seven-mile mark was passed the racers were neck and neck.

Pathfinder is owned by F. W. Morlan of Chicago and Enquirer is the property of W. J. Yonkers of Buffalo, N. Y. The race was the first of a series between the steam yachts Pathfinder and Enquirer has ended in a victory for the Buffalo boat. The Pathfinder gave up the contest when off this point and turned back for Chicago.

When the racers passed the bluff here they were rather indistinct, but were making great time. Soon something seemed to go wrong on the Pathfinder and after that the Pathfinder fell astern rapidly. Summary:

Enquirer, 1:10; Pathfinder, 1:10. Not many minutes after this time was taken the Pathfinder put about, apparently giving up the race.

Milwaukee, July 29.—Early this morning there was a race between the big steamers Christopher Columbus and Virginia and the steam yacht Enquirer. The race was won by the Christopher Columbus, the Enquirer coming in one minute later and the Virginia a few minutes behind the steam yacht. The Columbus is the big white-hulled boat, during the World's fair, became famous by carrying on occasions as many as 5,000 passengers at a time.
